This year's GMS RLSS Summit will be held on May 23 - 24, 2019, immediately following the GMS Accounting Summit in beautiful Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

During this summit, all aspects of the GMS-RLSS software will be covered. You will learn how to enter and edit Loan Master Files; enter Loan Activity and how to correct any errors and/or change dates and notes; set up new codes; different ways to prepare Amortization Schedules; which reports are best used for different circumstances; and how the many RLSS features and supplements can make your life easier and save you time. New tips and techniques will be presented and many other items will be discussed.

Join us a day early on Wednesday, May 22 and have the opportunity to attend a fun offsite networking trip with GMS Staff and Clients. All details can be found on the RLSS Summit website.

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bring your skills to this opportunity to provide financial leadership for a leading private non-profit social services agency in Santa Barbara County, California. As the CFO, you will be responsible for all financial operations of the Agency including accounting, compliance, tax filings, financial reporting, payroll, budgeting, audits, forecasting, internal controls, and treasury activities.

Qualified candidates must have a Bachelor's degree in Accounting, Finance or a related field and a minimum of 7 years of professional accounting experience that includes gathering and evaluating financial information and making actionable recommendations to senior leadership. A CPA and/or MBA is preferred. Experience in a senior financial management role, partnering with leadership, resulting in the development and implementation of financial management strategies, is critical. Preferred candidates will have experience managing finance (accounting, budgeting, control, and reporting) for a complex nonprofit with multiple funding sources including government (federal and state) contracts. Qualified candidates must be mission-driven and effective in a team-oriented working environment.

Become a key contributor to the success of a diverse and dynamic organization!

To apply for this challenging opportunity, call (805) 964-8857 x 1116 or access our Career Opportunities portal at our website at www.cacsb.org under Careers.

Please provide a cover letter that describes your interest in the position and salary requirements.
